

The new ISFG website "www.isfg.org" – activation of membership account

All ISFG members are urgently asked to activate their personal user account. This is a new feature that did not exist on the old website. Using your personal account, you can update your contact details such as postal and email addresses. Thus, you can make sure that the printed copy of FSI Genetics will reach you, and that you will receive the ISFG newsletters.

Starting in 2009, the payment of membership fees will also be possible using an online payment system. Furthermore, a direct link will be established with the website of FSI Genetics that will enable you to have a direct access to the online version of the journal without further login procedures. Thus, you will have to remember only one username and password.

Please follow these instructions carefully:

- At your first visit: Click on "Get Access" at the top right corner of the logo bar (see above)

Last name	<input type="text"/>
ISFG Member ID No.	<input type="text"/>
Security question	Reverse the character sequence of "INTOO" <input type="text"/>
<input type="button" value="GET ACCESS"/>

- Enter your last name and your ISFG membership number (if you do not recall this number, please ask the webmaster or one of the board members).
- Answer the "Security question" (in this example, the answer would be "OOTNI", but there are many other questions), and then click on "Get access".
- A new page opens – this is your personal profile page – please read all the instructions at the top.
- Enter your personal data – you can also indicate which of your contact details that you want to be visible for (1) other ISFG members and (2) for website visitors by clicking the buttons in red /yellow / green to the left of each line.
- Choose your personal "Username" and "password".
- Check your email address, remove the string of "@@@", or add your correct email address, if missing – without correct email address, the whole procedure will not be completed!
- Click on "Update".
- Wait for the arrival of a confirmation email. This mail contains a web link. You will have to click on this link to complete the validation procedure*.
- Following the initial access procedure, you have to use the "Sign in" link to access your account and the member's area of the website.
- If you have lost your password, you can "Recover it" by clicking on this link on the Login screen.

 If the confirmation email does not arrive, please check the spam folder of your local mail program or webmail system. Please contact the webmaster or one of the ISFG board members for help!
