

Meeting of the English Speaking Working Group (ESWG) of the International Society of Forensic Genetics (ISFG)
8 – 11 September 2010, in Stockholm, Sweden

Location: Hotel Hilton Slussen, Stockholm, Sweden

Time: September 8 to 11, 2010

Preliminary program (first version)

Wednesday, September 8

20.00        Get together with a glass of wine at hotel Hilton Stockholm Slussen

Thursday, September 9

08.30        New methods for forensic applications

- Large scale techniques
- Single cell analysis
- Time for oral and poster presentations

12.00        Lunch

13.00        Disaster Victim Identification (DVI) in an international context

- Experiences from the laboratory work
- Marker systems and methods used
- Common procedures and databases
- Oral and poster presentations

15.00        Bioinformatics in practical forensic work

18.00        Boat trip to Fjäderholmarna and dinner

Friday, September 10

08.30        New areas for genetics in forensic medicine

- Genetic diagnostics in forensic medicine
- Pharmacogenetics
- Microorganisms
- Oral and poster presentations

12.00        Lunch

13.00        Experiences from ESWG quality control workshop activities

- Presentation of workshop activities
- Methods, markers, etc.

- 14.00      Linked genes and linkage disequilibrium
- Statistical evaluation in of markers on the X-chromosome
- 15.00      Value of evidence
- Overview of methods to estimate the strength of evidence
  - Time for oral and poster presentations

Saturday, September 11

- 09.00      Open discussion of analysis of human remains, the scientific forensic area and next generation techniques
- 12.00      Lunch and visit at the WASA MUSEUM

The aim for the meeting is to

- give basic information in new areas of interest
- focus upon the lessons to be learned
- and to give time for discussions

Picture from the Wasa Museum

Byline: Richard Ryan – Stockholm Visitors Board